DEDICATION

The 1993-94 Arch yearbook staff has dedicated this edition to a man who has given service, leadership, and unconditional friendship. Mr. Martin is a man who has put his best foot forward. He has dedicated his time and efforts to the students here at FMC. The Arch staff would especially like to thank him for putting up with us during the production of this edition. We wish Mr. Martin continued success and may God continue to bless him.

Kim Lanier shares her talent of face painting with the future "Lions".

FMC students take time out to enjoy the festivities in the gym.

UMOJA . . . Swahili for Unity, is the theme for the 1993-1994 Arch yearbook. Afrocentricity has become very popular in our society as well as on our campus. As African-Americans we need to unite together and make some significant changes. We need to unite together to stop the violence. We need to unite together to endure the prejudices that still exist in our society. We need to unite together to ensure that the generations that follow us are receiving quality educations in the classroom and not on the street. We need to unite together and speak up about the unfair treatment of our brothers and sisters in Haiti and South Africa. Once we began to unite and fight for what is right, no one can keep us back. With that in mind, let's make a change and UNITE.

UMOJA

Florida Memorial's Student Development Office sponsored a week of religious activities. Believing that we all should focus our hearts and minds on the Lord, they sponsored what was known on campus as "Religious Emphasis" week. The week consisted of lectures and also a gospel concert. Here's a preview.

Office of the President

Dear Students:

I am pleased to have the opportunity to greet you in the 1993-94 Arch. The accomplishments of the past year have been many and this publication will memorably reflect many of the successes, the activities, the historic moments and the unforgettable experiences.

Diligent refforts and many long hours were required to complete this edition of the yearbook. I express my sincere appreciation to the Arch staff for a task well done.

Florida Memorial College is South Florida's only Historically Black College and we are a vital part of the educational community. Related to Baptist churches and traditions, Florida Memorial currently serves a culturally diverse student population.

We are currently refurbishing and improving many of our buildings and planning further construction of new facilities. The gymnasium has been named the A. Chester Robinson Athletic Center.

It is apparent that Florida Memorial is indeed a growing and dynamic center of learning. I ask each of you to continue your support of our great institution and I urge you to remain loyal to our quest for excellence as we face the challenges of tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Albert Smith
President

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer

Dear Colleagues:

The Student Government Association believes that all students entering Florida Memorial College have the right to receive the best education that can be offered anywhere. We believe that our primary task is to design and implement educational experiences that will help students strive for excellence, and experience academic success.

No other generation has heard so much talk about education like this one. So, I welcome you to the challenges that Florida Memorial have awaiting you.

Your smiles, greetings and partnership in seeking knowledge has presented me with the finest year of my life. Again and my heart has been filled with pride as professors and administrators alike have declared that these have been the finest years in memory.

Students, you and I are a part of a noble tradition at this institution. Industrious, you and I have striven to elevate and broadcast the pride and academic excellence of Florida Memorial College.

You, the strong young men and fine young women, who study here are preparing yourselves for the hard tasks that lie ahead. We are off to an excellent start. Together we were inspired by this great tradition we have inherited, let us forge a new chapter of successors.

I thank you for the opportunity to serve as your student representative, for the academic year 1993-94.

Respectfully,

Esther Henry

IN MEMORIAM

FMC lost a dear friend and a dedicated student this school year. Nannette Smikle was tragically taken away from us on December 29, 1993. A person who was a friend to all and a dedicated student, she will be sadly missed.

DON'T CRY

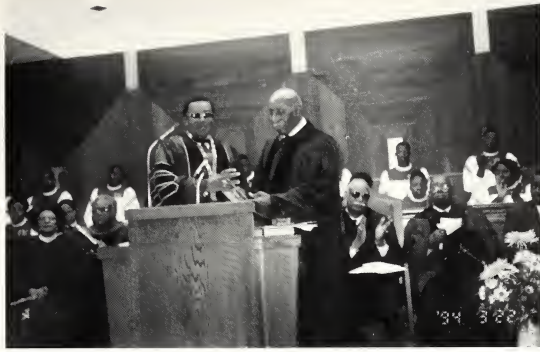

*Here we are again, that old familiar place.
Where the wind will blow, no one knows.
The time or space, Don't cry for me.
Don't shed a tear. The time I've shared with you will always be, and when I'm gone still carry on. Don't cry for me, no one is the blame. My death was meant to be. Don't carry guilt or shame, the reason why I came, soon you'll see.
Don't cry. When life is not the joy it should be, with life comes pain and soon time will be rewarded. And all this world will see.*

— Benjamin Winans

Founders' Day and Donation Day are two time honored traditions at Florida Memorial College. On Founders' Day, the school celebrates the spirit of the Founders. Donation Day is when the school invites local leaders, churches and others to participate in raising funds for our beloved FMC.

*If it hurts you to look back, frightens you to look ahead,
then just look beside you . . .
I'll be there.*

Miss FMC crowns Miss Sophomore, Tamika Forde

*The Time and Place: November, 1993, FMC gym
Occasion: The coronation of Miss FMC*

Anticipation is high. Everyone awaits the arrival of the 1993-94 Queen, Teri Helenese. Escorted by the Florida Highway Patrol, the court arrives at 7:45pm. Then from above, a noise can be heard. Was it a bird, a plane? No, it was Miss FMC being escorted to the coronation by helicopter. The evening was as lovely as our queen. Turn the pages and enjoy.

Miss FMC Teri Helenes smiles for her audience.

Chauncey Holloman helps crown bearer, Darius Maddox.

ALL HAIL TO THE QUEEN

Teri Ann Helenese is a native of St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands. Teri was born on Friday, October 8, 1972. She is a senior majoring in Political Science and minoring in Public Administration. Teri Ann Helenese has been an active member of the Student Government Association since the Fall of 1990. In 1990, she was elected Freshman Class Senator. She was later appointed Sophomore Class Treasurer and elected Esquire Vice President in 1991. In 1992, she was elected Junior Class Vice President and Miss Florida Memorial College by the student body on April 23, 1993.

Teri is an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated; the Catholic Students Association and the U.S. Virgin Islands Association. In addition, she has been active in community projects such as the National Youth Sports Program and Jann Mann Opportunity School.

Teri is an intelligent, articulate, loving, and dedicated individual. Her energies and ambitions focus upon an emphasis on education, pride in heritage, and reliance on churches and family to surpass hard times to become a unified, dignified, productive people in our society. As you can clearly see, Teri Helenese has given her time and talents to serve this great institution.

Turning night-time to day
In one small face
When laughter peels from your throat
Pulling back the full lips
Sending Sunrays through the field of your face
And the white gleam of your teeth
Highlights the dark contours of your cheeks . . .*

The ladies volleyball team show the visitors that they have what it takes. At the right, the ladies of basketball go on the road to let the home team know who's runnin' things.

The Ladies of Alpha Kappa Alpha

Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded at Howard University on January 15, 1908. The first Greek lettered sorority for black women has maintained as its chief aim "Service to all mankind". There has always remained the purpose to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards.

Delta Eta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded on the 16th of February in 1954. It has kept sisterhood and service as its main focus. The ladies of Delta Eta continue to stress "Service to all Mankind."

The Men of Alpha Phi Alpha

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first and largest Black Greek-lettered fraternity began at the idea of seven black men at Cornell University in Ithica, New York. On December 4, 1906 A Phi A was founded.

Delta Psi chapter was founded forty years ago by the former president of FMC, Rev. Royal Puryear. The men of Delta Psi have a firm desire to stimulate a deep sense of brotherhood and leadership in the young men who attend FMC. To date, the men of Delta Psi are still attracting men of good character and leadership to its ranks.

DARE TO BE different

The men of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity were selected as one of two organizations on campus to be highlighted for their service in the community. The men of Phi Beta Sigma, volunteer their time to elementary and senior high school students, they give food to the needy and they also sponsor a workshop to help teenage students make responsible choices about sex. Keep up the good work Sigmas and continue to unite for good and worthy causes.

DARE TO BE different

The men of Kappa Alpha Psi were the second outstanding campus organization selected. Below are photos of the Kappas during their week. The men of Kappa Alpha Psi participated as volunteers for the American Cancer Society, M.A.D.D. and served as tutors for Opa-Locka Elementary and Jan-Mann Middle School. We commend the men of Kapsi for their work.

The ladies of Delta Sigma Theta

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded in 1913 by 22 assiduous students at Howard University. Because "Intelligence is the torch of wisdom", these women used their collective strength to promote academic excellence and to promote assistance to the unfortunate and needy.

Zeta Tau chapter was chartered at Florida Memorial in 1969 by the "11 from Heaven". Today, the ladies of DST here at FMC have continued to work hard to maintain a high standard of excellence second to none. A sisterhood of more than 200,000 women, the very distinguished currently has over 850 chapters worldwide.

The Men of Omega Psi Phi

Omega Psi Phi was founded on November 17, 1911 at Howard University. The fraternity was founded by three dedicated students and a faculty advisor. Q Psi Phi was the first black fraternity founded at a black institution of higher learning. Thus, this fraternity is sworn to academic excellence through their diligent work in academics, leadership and community service.

Throughout their years of service here at FMC, this fraternity has shown the meaning of true brotherhood within their organization and taking part in community and campus related functions.

FMC's

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

Members of Florida Memorial's Dance Club, Mystique, perform a lip sync rendition of En Vogue's "Giving him something he can feel." The group which is headed by Junior Nakisha Clarke has performed at various functions including the Kappa's Black and White Ball. Below, supporters of Alpha Phi Alpha enjoy the Homecoming stepshow.

Florida Memorial's campus organizations have struggled to make campus life enjoyable for students. Even registered campus organization sponsors a wealth of activities for students. However, student participation at the functions was not always high. Despite poor attendance to some activities, the organizations on campus sponsored educating and entertaining campus events.

ALPHA KAPPA MU

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society is an organization devoted to academic excellence. Alpha Kappa Mu promotes educational excellence. Keva Ferguson serves as president.

PHIETTES

The Phiettes are supporters of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity. The ladies lend support and stand behind the men of Alpha Phi Omega. Renita Rhymes serves as president.

AMBASSADOR CHORALE

The Ambassador Chorale is under the direction of Mister Charles Clency. The chorale is an outstanding group who sing various styles of music: gospel, classical, spiritual and various other styles. The chorale travels every spring to help raise funds for FMC. Sherise Dawkins serves as president.

CATHOLIC STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Catholic Student Association is an organization which gives religious support to its members. Vince McGregor serves as president.

THE DANCE CLUB

The Dance Club has used various types of dance to express it's message of love. Nakisha Clarke serves as president.

THE FRENCH CLUB

The French Club or Le Club Francois serves as a club for students who speak or desire to speak French.

THE FLAG FOOTBALL TEAM

The Flag Football team started by Kito Bess has been a great way for students to have fun. Since FMC does not have a football team, the wannabee football players give it their best shot.

JAMAICAN STUDENT CLUB

The Jamaican Student Association serves as a home away from home for our Jamaican students. Under the watchful eye of Ms. Fagan, the advisor, the students sponsor many cultural activities on campus.

THE MEN AND WOMEN OF CHARACTER

Men and Women of Character is an organization that promotes men and women on campus to attain and maintain a level of excellence. Men of Character and Women of Character are under the advisement of Mr. Reid.

PRE-ALUMNI COUNCIL

The Pre-Alumni Council is an organization that raises funds for the United Negro College Fund. Under the advisement of Mrs. Reed, the Pre-Alumni Council hosts many activities to raise money for UNCF. Jeremiah Sales serves as president.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government Association acts as a liaison between students, administration, faculty and staff. Under the leadership of Esther Henry, SGA sponsors events for FMC students.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Student Support Services is an office where students can interact with others. A select few students serve as peer counselors and tutors for students.

TOASTMASTERS

Toastmasters is an organization that assists students in developing and maintaining public speaking skills.

THE VIRGIN ISLAND CLUB

The VI club serves as a home away from home for students who hail from the VI. Jane Ann St. Rose serves as president.

HOMECOMING

AUXILIARY STEPSHOW

The auxiliary stepshow is a competition between the supporters of the Greek fraternities on campus. This year all the organizations participated except the Sigma supports. This year's competition was fierce. The ladies diligently prepared for the competition. As with an auxiliary stepshow, the ladies stepped hard and the name calling was fierce. The Alpha supporters gave an outstanding show, as well as the Kappa supporters, Omega supporters, Alpha Phi Omega supporters and the Women of Character. The ladies were good, but there can only be one winner. The ladies of Alpha Phi Omega.

THE STEPSHOW

The 1993-94 Homecoming stepshow/concert was better than the show the year before. The majority of the spectators at the show seemed to agree. Senior Dondrea Martin stated "If they (Homecoming Committee) ever decide to get us better entertainment, the show could be better. This year's concert featured the group After 7. The group was good, but many would have preferred if the Homecoming committee would have gotten a group that the students wanted. SWV, R Kelly, Toni Braxton, Snoop Dogg were names of artists that students desired to see.

The stepshow was very interesting. The ladies of Zeta Phi Beta and the men of Alpha Phi Alpha won the stepshow competition. However, the surprise of the show was the performance of the Kappas. The Kappas had an extremely exciting show. The ladies of DST and AKA also gave outstanding shows. The festivities were truly delightful.

The AKA's enjoy showing the crowd the show they worked so hard to put together.

The soul-stepping sorors of DST prepare to show the crowd exactly who is running things.

Winners of the sorority's, Zeta Phi Beta dazzle the crowd with their steps.

The brothers of Alpha Phi Omega gave an excellent show.

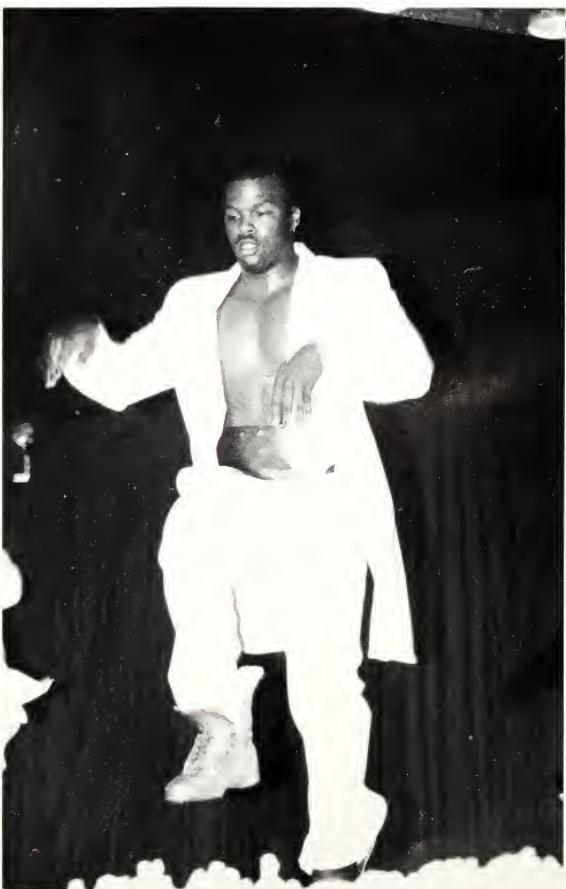

show winners Alpha Phi Alpha

The Lion even dressed up for the occasion. Despite his dress, the lion showed us he has the spirit.

Miss FMC smiles as she awaits the outcome of the game.

Coach Parker is all smiles prior to the homecoming game.

The Lady Lions gave us a win during our Homecoming game. The ladies had a great game and the crowd agreed.

They tried and they tried, but they came up short. The men gave it their all, but they lost their game during Homecoming.

The men of Kappa Alpha Psi gave an amazing, unpredictable show at the Homecoming stepshow. Many were surprised and quite pleased with their performance.

The ladies of Delta Sigma Theta turned it out at the Homecoming stepshow. The ladies gave an outstanding show and we look forward to their next show.

The supporters of Alpha Phi Alpha gave a rowdy audience much to talk about after their moving show.

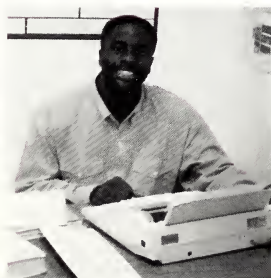

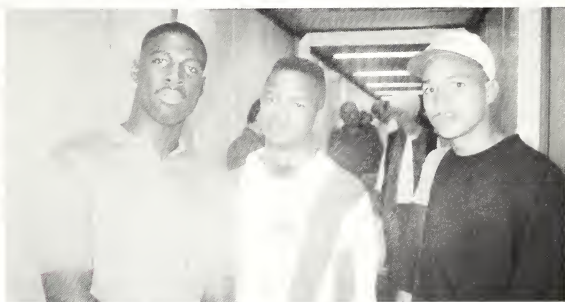

LION'S TALE STAFF

FLORIDA MEMORIAL'S STUDENT PAPER

Peter Carey is the Editor of the Lion's Tale, FMC'S student newspaper. Peter has a hardworking and dedicated staff which consists of Neil Russell, Assistant Editor, Vince McGregor, Howard Ffrench, Jose Palermo, Jason Glasford, Tyrone Anderson and Senelisa Russell.

Dedrie Registe served as Assistant Editor for this edition of the yearbook. Dedrie diligently worked to give her all for this production. An Airway Science Management major, Dedrie looks forward to graduation in December.

Monique Williams served as Copy Editor for this edition of the yearbook. Monique joined our team later than the rest of the staff; however, she gave her all to the staff. A Computer Science major, Monique looks forward to graduation in the Spring of 95.

THE 1993-1994 ARCH

Tyrone Anderson served as the Sports Editor and as photographer for this edition of the yearbook. Tyrone put in more hours than practically anyone on the staff. A Business major, Tyrone anticipates graduation in 1996.

Tamika Forde served as the Business Manager for this edition of the yearbook. Tamika used her talents in various sections of the yearbook. A political science major, Tamika will graduate in 1996 as well.

YEARBOOK STAFF

On our way to the Media Convention In Dallas, Texas, Tyrone and Sonya take a load off in the airport.

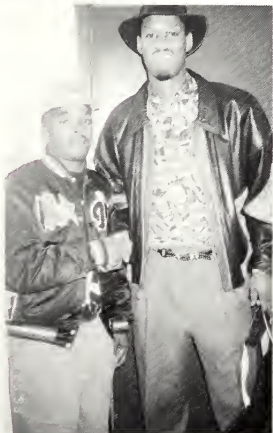

Greedy, Greedy, GREEDY!!!!!! Members of the Arch and Lion's Tale enjoy their meal before heading out to another lecture.

Carrying the materials acquired at the conference, Sonya looks like she's ready to take a break.

Jose and Dedrie smile as we get ready to depart for dinner. They must be very hungry because they can't stop smiling.

Sports Editor, Tyrone Anderson, shakes hands with Terry Davis of the Dallas Mavericks. Tyrone was fortunate enough to interview several players.

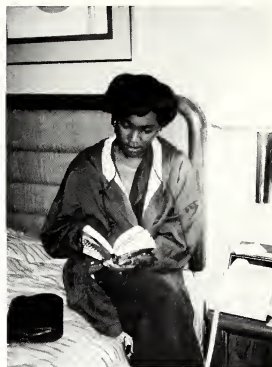

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

IT'S OVER!!!! The 1993-94 yearbook is now complete. Everyone can stop asking me if we're going to have a yearbook this year because here it is. This was not easy and I have to thank a lot of people for helping me to complete it. First, Tyrone Anderson, you are invaluable. There is no one else in America who would put up with me and thousands of request. I thank you for everything that you have done because you did your job over and beyond what you were required to do. Thank you sweetie and don't forget our song!!! Dedrie, Thank You for helping me make the transition into yearbook editing. You were very instrumental in it's completion. Thanks a lot. Monique, Thank you for your help and all the work that you've done. I appreciate all you've done. Tamika, I am thankful for everything you've done for me. You've been a true friend and I know that I can rely on you for everything I need. Thanks for your help and thanks for being a listening ear when I needed to vent. I'll miss you this upcoming year. Mr. Martin and Colonel Clarke, the staff and I would like to thank you for all your help and support. Ms. Fagan, thanks for understanding all the frustrations I went through. Mrs. Reed, thank you for everything. Just coming to your office and talking to you really helped a lot. To Peter Carey, Vince McGregor, Jose Palermo and the Lion's Tale Staff for your help and your continued support. Special thanks to Vince and Jose for taking pictures for us. To my roommates Dondrea and Chelsea, thanks for friendship. You two are the best. Thank you for listening to me yell and fuss about this yearbook. Demetrius, I almost forgot you. Thank you for wanting to give your time and support. No matter what I asked, you did your best. Thank you. Talya, thanks for being a friend. Last but not least, thank you Terence for everything. You never complained when I had you run errands for me for the yearbook. Anything and everything I asked for was o.k. and I appreciate that. You are very special to me and I will always remember the things you've done for me. Thank you sweetie. I forgot one last person, Ayauna, thank you for your help in the early stages of the yearbook. I appreciate it. To the ladies of Delta Sigma Theta, thanks for the support. If I forgot anyone, please forgive me. Thanks anyway!!! Now, that I'm finished with this, i can enjoy my summer. See Ya in the Fall . . . UMOJA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Carefully examining dinner, editor Sonya McSwain looks at her meal before taking a bite.

UUHH!*

Knowing that the year is at a close brought a smile to the faces of Miss FMC Terri Helenese and Mister Peter Carey, Editor of The Lion's Tale. Looking forward to graduation and the workforce, Miss Helense and Mister Carey have a lot to smile about.

Looking forward to the summer break and the end of her freshman year, one of FMC's promising new students tells her mom to get ready to help her move out the dorms.

“LET’S GO HOME EVERYBODY” . . .

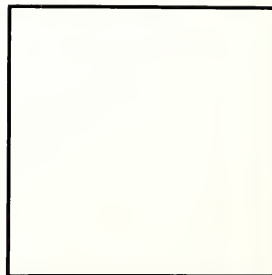

“MARKING THE END OF A NEW YEAR!!!”

It was a lot of fun and it was totally exhausting as well. What am I talking about? The 1993-94 school term. Our freshman have grown up (hopefully) and we’re kicking out the seniors. Through it all, FMC students continued to perserve and excel in the classroom. As we prepare to pave the path into tomorrow, remember we have NO Limits! You’ll have tomorrow, bright before you. There are no limits to hold you.

GOODBYE FOR NOW!!!!!!!

Goodbye for now, but don't be sad. We'll meet again, trust me, sometime real soon. I hope your years has been as memorable as mine. If not, may your future be as bright as the sun. Don't ever forget the times we've shared, even if they were only a few. Keep smiling, keep shining and keep the spirit of UMOJA alive ... GOOD LUCK!!!!!!
